

THE KINGS ARMS HOTEL

ABERGAVENNY

The Kings Arms Hotel is a late sixteenth century coaching inn located in the heart of the bustling Welsh market town of Abergavenny; the gateway to Wales. We offer something for everyone; comfortable, well-appointed guest accommodation, lip smackingly delicious restaurant food and a versatile function space for all manner of events. Whatever your reason for visiting – an extended getaway break, a lazy lunch meet up with friends, or a flying coffee and newspaper pit stop – we'd like to extend you the warmest of welcomes. Come in and take a look around...

DISCOVER ABERGAVENNY

Abergavenny is known as the 'Gateway to Wales', and is surrounded by two mountains: the Bloreng and the Sugarloaf, and five hills. Abergavenny is situated at the borders to The Brecon Beacons National Park and nearby Black Mountains, making our town an ideal base for walkers and hikers or for those simply seeking stunning countryside to enjoy. The Marches Way, Beacons Way and Usk Valley Walk, all pass through the town. Abergavenny was recently awarded 'Walkers are Welcome' status – the 100th town in the UK to be awarded the accolade and recognised as a top walking destination.
